

Ashvena
1953

Thank you for bringing us home.

In 1947, when our family crossed the border, they carried one thing with them: a promise to do everything with purity. With honesty. No shortcuts. Ever.

Since 1953, that promise has gone into everything we make. Today, a little of it goes home with you.

We hope it tastes like home.

With love, the Ashvena family
